

Professor Francis Machingura is the Acting Director of the Postgraduate Studies Centre at the University of Zimbabwe. He is an Associate Professor in Biblical Studies, and also a member of the University of Zimbabwe Council. He is the former Chairperson of the Languages and Arts Education Department, Faculty of Education. He has served on several committees and boards in and outside the University of Zimbabwe. His areas of research interest are on: Interaction of the Bible and Gender; Bible and Politics; Bible and Health, Bible and Inclusivity, Bible and Sexuality, Christianity in Africa. He has published several journal articles, books, and book chapters, and presented papers at numerous local, regional, and international conferences.

Professor Oswell Hapanyengwi-Chemhuru is the Executive Dean of the Faculty of Education at the University of Zimbabwe where he is also Associate Professor of Philosophy of Education in the Department of Educational Foundations. Before this appointment in 2015, he was the Deputy Dean in the same Faculty, and Chairperson of the Department of Educational Foundations. Professor Hapanyengwi has published several refereed journal articles, books and book chapters, and presented papers at numerous local, regional, and international conferences. He has a keen interest in the practical application of philosophy to everyday experiences and challenges to improve the quality of life in Zimbabwe and beyond.

Unpacking the Competence-Based Curriculum Framework (2015-2022)
for Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe

Edited by Francis Machingura &
Oswell Hapanyengwi-Chemhuru

Unpacking the Competence-Based Curriculum Framework (2015-2022) for Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe

Edited by
Francis Machingura &
Oswell Hapanyengwi-Chemhuru

© 2021 Academic Research Centre P.B.C
Website: <https://arc.ac>
Email: publishing@arc.ac

<https://arc.ac>

Unpacking the Competence-Based Curriculum Framework (2015-2022) for Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe

Edited by Francis Machingura and Oswell Hapanyengwi-Chemhuru

Academic Research Centre

Leading in quality research

Published 2021 by the Academic Research Centre P.B.C.

*First Published 2021
by the Academic Research Centre P.B.C.
Harare, Zimbabwe
Website: <https://arc.ac>
Email: publishing@arc.ac*

Cover design by Tonderai Nherera.

Catalogue records for this book are available from the National Archives of Zimbabwe and the National Library and Documentation Services of Zimbabwe.

*ISBN: 978-1-77920-564-3 (paperback)
© 2021 Academic Research Centre P.B.C.*

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means: electronic, electrostatic, magnetic tape, digital, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without prior permission in writing from the Academic Research Centre (ARC).

Contents

Dedication	i
Acknowledgements	ii
Notes on contributors	iii
Introduction: Sustainable Development and the Zimbabwean Competence-Based Curriculum	1
Oswell Hapanyengwi-Chemhuru and Francis Machingura
1 Operationalising Zimbabwe's Teacher Professional Standards in Teaching and Learning: Laying the Foundation for Education 5.0 at Higher and Tertiary Levels	8
Rosemary Moyana
2 The Teaching of Zimbabwe's Once-Marginalized Languages: A Historical Note	26
Emmanuel Chabata
3 A Philosophical Enquiry into Zimbabwe's New Curriculum as a Vehicle Towards the Country's Attainment of Sustainable Development	39
Joyline Gwara
4 Sustainable Development and the New Curriculum in Zimbabwe: Bridging the Gulf between Humanities and Commerce Disciplines through Economic History	52
Bernard Kusena, Manasa Munashe Madondo and Nathaniel Chimhete
5 Teaching Practice Anxiety in Secondary Teacher Education	67
Rosina Mavunga and Maria Theresa Musingarabwi
6 Zimbabwean Physics Teachers' Perceptions of their Initial Teacher Training Preparedness to Teach Advanced Level Physics	78
Simbarashe Munikwa
7 Perspectives on Teacher Professional Standards, Teacher Education and Training in Zimbabwe	95
Caroline Dimingu and Linda M. Mabwe
8 'Building on Curiosity and Enthusiasm': Supporting a focus on STEM that begins in early childhood and extends into the future	112
Barbara C. Manyarara and M. T. Charehwa
9 Tolerance and peace-building in the Shona proverbs	130
Liveson Tatira

10 African Oral Art Forms and Child Development: A Case of Dominican Nursery and Happy Centre in Gweru	139
Vimbai M. Matiza
11 The Power and Mystery of Play in Enhancing Children's Capacity to Learn: Implications for Design and Technology Education	152
Peter Kwaira
12 Comparison of the Old Primary Religious Education and the FAREME Syllabi: Stakeholders Outcry	175
Francis Machingura, Lucky Chamboko and Mabel Matekenya
13 The Teething Challenges to Teaching as a Profession: Reflections on the Professionalisation of Teaching in Zimbabwe	187
Oswell Hapanyengwi-Chemhuru
14 Teachers' Assessment Competencies: An Imperative for the Successful Implementation of Continuous Assessment (CA) in the Updated Zimbabwean School Curriculum	209
Kudakwashe Manokore and Timothy Chiwiye	